Understanding the Rules of the Game
RULES & REGULATIONS & SUBMISSION CONDITIONS
Microsoft Canada Inc., McDonald’s Canada Inc., Kraft Heinz Inc., Environics Analytics Inc., Dentsu Inc., CIBC Inc., PepsiCo Canada Inc. (the “Learning Partner”), and McMaster University (the “University”) reserve the right to modify elements of the competition, rules, and regulations, and prizing during the course of the year.

Learning Partners and the University may change the dates and deadlines for any or all aspects of the competition in extreme circumstances. If any type of modification becomes necessary, reasonable notice and communication will be given with explanation to all participants. It is the responsibility of the participant to check their email and the competition website/social media pages to make note of any changes.

By participating in the contest, by registering, or by accepting the terms posted on this website, each participant hereby releases and holds harmless McMaster University, Microsoft Canada Inc., McDonald’s Canada Inc., Kraft Heinz Inc., Environics Analytics Inc., Dentsu Inc., CIBC Inc., PepsiCo Canada Inc., and all other learning partners of the competition and all of their respective affiliates and agencies, employees, officers, and directors from and against any and all liability, claims, damages, actions, and costs, arising out of or in connection with their participation in the Canadian Marketing League competition hosted by students of McMaster University, Hamilton, Ontario.

GRAND PRIZE
The winning team will be awarded $20,000 Canadian dollars as the grand prize. The prize must be accepted as described in the contest rules and regulations and may not be transferred to another person or substituted for another prize. Prize substitution in whole or in part is at the sole discretion of program Learning Partners, the University, and the Canadian Marketing League.

Winner(s) must present adequate personal identification and validate status as FULL TIME registered undergraduate, Masters, or MBA student at an accredited Canadian University and be a LEGAL RESIDENT of Canada at the time of all qualifying stages and the final to claim the prize(s). Winner is solely responsible for all taxes and expenses which are not specified above. The grand cash prize will be conditional on the execution by the winner(s) of a full release and any other legal document required by Learning Partners, the University and the Canadian Marketing League. The winners agree to collaborate with Learning Partners, the University and the Canadian Marketing League on media press coverage of their participation and the cash prize.

REGISTRATION DETAILS
- Registration to participate is as an INDIVIDUAL or as a TEAM of TWO ONLY. Teams can be formed by students with eligible partners at other universities or between full time undergraduate and full time Masters or MBA students. Each student or team can only make one submission.
- Pre-season registration concludes on January 27, 2024 at 11:59 PM EST. Please carefully follow the submission guidelines on how to submit your solution for the Canadian Marketing League – the submission steps are available on the website https://www.marketingleague.ca/.
• If you have any questions concerning submission you can send an e-mail to query@cmljudging.ca.
• The program is not responsible for any technical glitches that result in delayed upload of submissions.

COMPETITION DETAILS

1. Submissions must be written and spoken in English or French.
2. Competition details and submission instructions can be found on the Canadian Marketing League’s website: https://www.marketingleague.ca/.
3. The submission briefing and instructions are intended to serve as suggested guidelines only, and as a result will not be the sole judging criteria utilized by the judging panel.
4. All teams must submit up to and no more than a 3-minute video presentation of their idea during the Pre-Season stage. More information can be found at: https://www.marketingleague.ca/. At the end of the Pre-Season, up to and no more than the top 25 teams will be selected by industry and academic judges to continue to the Regular Season.
5. Regular Season participants/teams will compete during week four of February 2024 or week one of March 2024 in two stages presented by Environics Analytics Inc. and Kraft Heinz Inc.
6. The top 10 participants/teams as determined by the judging panel after the Regular Season will be announced as Finalists and participate in the Finals in early April 2023.
